

Kitchen Maker Online

Why Kitchen Maker Online will work for you!

Kitchen Maker Online is quite unique – a quarterly online magazine aimed at kitchen fitters and installers, incorporating those specialising in commercial kitchen fit-outs.

Kitchen Maker Online acts as a mouthpiece for kitchen manufacturers and all those involved in the kitchen installation industry.

Kitchen Maker Online goes live 4 times a year and will provide the very best of advertising opportunities.

Every one to whom the magazine is mail shotted every quarter is an interested party sourced from the very latest data base information to ensure that those who receive it have a specialist interest in this particular market sector.

Kitchen Maker Online brings you the up-to-the-minute news, covering the whole of Europe, as well as the UK. Constantly reflecting the latest industry trends, Kitchen Maker Online contains a wealth of information

Dealing with the top public relations companies in the kitchen manufacturing trade sector, Kitchen Maker Online aims to bring you all the latest news on a regular quarterly basis.

The specialist typesetting office is headed by Cheryl Woods, providing expert knowledge of how to present the magazine's news content in an eye-catching format.

Kitchen Maker Online is available to view online on a permanent basis. Each quarter we will highlight the most up-to-date issue, but the previous three quarters' issues will also remain online for a whole year, ensuring maximum exposure for your products.

Kitchen Maker Online is quite simply the best there is in the market for those involved in the kitchen manufacturing and fitting trades.

It makes sense to advertise with us – because Kitchen Maker Online will work for you!
